

QUIQUE SARZAMORA (Sevilla, 1992)

Quique Sarzamora, born in Marchena (Seville) has forged his path in the art world with a solid academic background. After completing his Bachelor in Fine Arts at the University of Seville in 2015, he continued his exploration in the artistic field through the Master in Interdisciplinary Artistic Production at the University of Malaga in 2017. of Malaga in 2017.

In addition to his academic training, he has taken several courses and workshops, including the IV course on realism and figuration by Antonio López and Andrés G. Ibáñez in 2015, and the creative workshop 'Al Margen. Pintura y otras heterodoxias' directed by Chema Cobo at the CICUS in Seville in 2018.

His work has been featured in numerous solo and group exhibitions nationally and internationally. Among his most recent solo exhibitions are 'De la imagen tradicional a los cuerpos del alba' at the Fundación Antonio Gala in Córdoba (2024) and 'Los colores del atardecer preparan los del alba' at the C.A.C Francisco Hernandez in Velez Málaga (2024).

Throughout his career, he has been awarded several prizes, including the I Prize '21 Días en el CAC' in Vélez Málaga in 2022 and the I Prize for painting in the III Certamen de Creación Joven Artistas Emergentes de la Universidad de Loyola in 2021. In addition, he has had the privilege of participating in prestigious residencies and receiving grants that have broadened his creative horizon, such as the XVII Residencia Fundación Antonio Gala for young creators in Córdoba in 2018/2019 and the II Edición Selpia Contemporánea in Navas del Selpillar in 2022. With a bold approach and unique vision, this young artist continues to make his mark on the contemporary art world.
